

Devon Churches Rural Forum

Reimagining Rural Ministry: Moving Towards New Structures

A one-day ecumenical conference exploring opportunities for new models of rural ministry. Current models are creaking at the seams, putting pressure on clergy and laity alike. How can we re-shape, re-imagine and re-invigorate for the future?

Saturday 28th July 2018

Cullompton Community Centre, EX15 1JX

9.30am registration; 10am - 4pm

Tea/coffee provided; please bring your own lunch

Car parking is available at the rear of the Community Centre

Devon Churches Rural Forum

Reimagining Rural Ministry: Moving Towards New Structures

A one-day ecumenical conference exploring opportunities for new models of rural ministry. Current models are creaking at the seams, putting pressure on clergy and laity alike. How can we re-shape, re-imagine and re-invigorate for the future?

Saturday 28th July 2018

Cullompton Community Centre, EX15 1JX

9.30am registration; 10am - 4pm

Tea/coffee provided; please bring your own lunch

Car parking is available at the rear of the Community Centre

The Rt Revd Robert Atwell, Bishop of Exeter:

“All ministry across our rural churches and chapels needs structures which release us rather than restrict us. As ecumenical partners facing the same rural challenges, this is a day for giving each other permission to think outside the ecclesiastical box and for giving oxygen to some creative thinking.”

Revd Graham Thompson, Chair of the Plymouth and Exeter Methodist District:

“Rural ministry is exciting but we need to rise to the challenges of today. Society is in flux – what do our rural churches need to keep, renew or change for 21st century mission?”

To book, please contact Joanie Harris, giving your name, e-mail address, telephone number and church/organisation.

Email: joanie.harris@exeter.anglican.org

Tel. 01392 294 940

www.devonchurchesruralforum.org.uk

The Rt Revd Robert Atwell, Bishop of Exeter:

“All ministry across our rural churches and chapels needs structures which release us rather than restrict us. As ecumenical partners facing the same rural challenges, this is a day for giving each other permission to think outside the ecclesiastical box and for giving oxygen to some creative thinking.”

Revd Graham Thompson, Chair of the Plymouth and Exeter Methodist District:

“Rural ministry is exciting but we need to rise to the challenges of today. Society is in flux – what do our rural churches need to keep, renew or change for 21st century mission?”

To book, please contact Joanie Harris, giving your name, e-mail address, telephone number and church/organisation.

Email: joanie.harris@exeter.anglican.org

Tel. 01392 294 940

www.devonchurchesruralforum.org.uk